Netflix Announces New Star-Studded Original Film “Wolf River at Midnight”

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 3, 2023/PR Newswire/ — Netflix is excited to announce the production of its latest original film, “Wolf River at Midnight,” starring Maya Hawke, Katherine Langford, Timothée Chalamet, Storm Reid and Christian Bale. Production will begin on March 15, 2023, with the film set for a global release on Sept. 15, 2024, exclusively on Netflix.

Set on the treacherous waters of the Wolf River in southern Mississippi, “Wolf River at Midnight” tells the story of three young women—Abby Deroche (Hawke), Sarah Hubbard (Langford), and Alecia Hernando (Reid)—who embark on a dangerous midnight mission to rescue their friend, Nicholas Lazar (Chalamet), from the clutches of his abusive father, Buck Lazar (Bale). “I’m excited to be asked to play Buck Lazar who is destined to become one of the most hated villains of all time,” Bale said.

Greta Gerwig will direct this film. She has worked on numerous critically acclaimed films including “Lady Bird,” which starred Chalamet. “It’s fun to be working with Greta Gerwig again,” said Chalamet. “She knows how to get the most out of me as an actor.”

“I’ve never worked with such a great director and script,” said Reid. With intense and suspense-filled storytelling done by Tony Moretti, “Wolf River at Midnight” promises to be a thrilling adventure exploring themes of friendship, courage, and survival.
