Dear Mr. Gurganious,

I hope this message finds you well. I'd like to offer the opportunity for Eddie St-Vil, our Director of Training and Leadership Development, to speak at the upcoming Black Student-Athlete Summit. St-Vil would provide valuable insights on a topic crucial to student-athletes: post-sports transitions.

With a master's degree in both Higher Education Leadership and Clinical Mental Health, St-Vil has extensive knowledge and experience helping athletes navigate life after sports, providing them with leadership training, career development skills and networking strategies to succeed beyond the field. His expertise in guiding student-athletes toward thriving professional careers aligns perfectly with the Summit's goal of empowering future leaders.

His insights will resonate deeply with the event's audience, offering actionable advice and personal stories that will inspire and equip student-athletes to confidently face the next stage of their lives. Would you be available to schedule a time to discuss booking Eddie for this important session?
